145.7 To discuss the BCC Parking document (if received prior to the meeting)
The Clerk is still pursuing this issue. County Cllr Downes has offered his help.

145.8 To agree to place an order for work on Chipps Hill
It is necessary to cut the brambles back to allow the wild flowers to come through. The work will be carried out once nesting has finished. It was resolved to place an order for £550 with Mr Ed Hill for the work to be carried out.

145.9 Members Questions and Statements
Cllr Mrs Pitcher reported that most of the cars parked outside the Brickmakers Arms mostly belong to residents of Chapel Row.
Cllr Mrs Storey reported that a syringe had been found on the playing field this has been reported to the police; the kite flying sign has been vandalised and a new sign has been created; minor vandalism was reported on the bus shelter – all the issues have been raised with the Thames Valley Police NAG. A resident also reported evidence of drug use in Pitchers Field. This will be reported to the police.
